ADDITIONAL CLAUSES

4. Cargo at port is at merchant risk, expenses and responsibility
 5. FCL
 77. THC at destination payable by Merchant as per line/port tariff
 194. For the purpose of the present carriage, clause 14(2) shall exclude the application of the York/Antwerp rules, 2004.
 202. Demurrage and detention shall be calculated and paid as per general tariff available on the web site www.cma-cgm.com, or in any of CMA CGM agency. However if special free time conditions are granted, then rates applicable as per general tariff grid shall start from the day following the last free day.
 216. Mis-declaration of cargo weight endangers crew, port workers and vessels' safety. Your cargo may be weighed at any place and time of carriage and any mis-declaration will expose you to claims for all losses, expenses or damages whatsoever resulting thereof and be subject to freight surcharge.
 222. Following to the strike affecting the French ports, cargo may be discharged in an alternative port without notice and - subject to availability - be on forwarded to the original intended port of destination. All additional costs, including but not limited to storage, demurrage at the alternative discharge port or extra on forwarding costs, shall be for Merchant's account and payable upon delivery
 225. The shipper acknowledges that the Carrier may carry the goods identified in this bill of lading on the deck of any vessel and in taking remittance of this bill of lading the Merchant (including the shipper, the consignee and the holder of the bill of lading, as the case may be) confirms his express acceptance of all the terms and conditions of this bill of lading and expressly confirms his unconditional and irrevocable consent to the possible carriage of the goods on the deck of any vessel.
 274. The Merchant is responsible for returning any empty container, with interior clean, free of any dangerous goods placards, labels or markings, at the designated place, and within 60 days following to the date of release, failing which the container shall be construed as lost. The Merchant shall be liable to indemnify the Carrier for any loss or expense whatsoever arising out of the foregoing, including but not limited to liquidated damages equivalent to the sound market value - or the depreciated value due by the Carrier to a container lessor. The Carrier is entitled to collect a deposit from the Merchant at the time of release of the container which shall be remitted as security for payment of any sums due to the Carrier, in particular for payment of all detention and demurrage and/or container indemnity as referred above.

RECEIVED by the Carrier from the Shipper in apparent good order and condition (unless otherwise noted herein) the total number or quantity of containers or other packages or units indicated above by the Merchant for carriage, subject to all the terms hereof (including the terms on page one) and tariff for the relevant trade, from the place of receipt or the port of loading, whichever applicable, to the port of discharge or place of delivery, whichever applicable. This Waybill is deemed to be a contract of carriage as defined in Article 1 (b) of the Hague Rules and Hague Visby Rules although this is not a document of title to the Goods.
 DELIVERY will only be made on Payment of all Freight and Charges and to the named Consignee or any third party nominated by the Consignee by written instruction to the Carrier or his Agent, unless the Shipper instructs otherwise prior to delivery. The rights and liabilities arising according to the terms hereof shall (without prejudice to any rule of common law and status) become binding between the Carrier and Consignee as if this agreement has been made between them and the Shipper guarantees on reception of this Waybill that he has accepted it on his own behalf, on behalf of the Consignee and the Owner of the Goods, and warrants that he has authority to do so.
All claims and actions arising between the Carrier and the Merchant in relation with the contract of Carriage evidenced by this Waybill shall exclusively be brought before the Tribunal de Commerce de Marseille and no other Court shall have jurisdiction with regards to any such claim or action. Notwithstanding the above, the Carrier is also entitled to bring the claim or action before the Court of the place where the defendant has his registered office.
 This Waybill is issued subject to the C.M.I Uniform Rules for Sea Waybills.
