ADDITIONAL CLAUSES

Cargo at port is at merchant risk, expenses and responsibility
 Reefer container can only be operated by electrical power. During land transportation the Carrier will not be liable in any respect whatsoever for consequences, due to non refrigeration.
 The Merchant is responsible for returning any empty container, with interior clean, free of any dangerous goods placards, labels or markings, at the designated place, and within 60 days following to the date of release, failing which the container shall be construed as lost. The Merchant shall be liable to indemnify the Carrier for any loss or expense whatsoever arising out of the foregoing, including but not limited to liquidate damages equivalent to the sound market value - or the depreciated value due by the Carrier to a container lessor. The Carrier is entitled to collect a deposit from the Merchant at the time of release of the container which shall be remitted as security for payment of any sums due to the Carrier, in particular for payment of all detention and demurrage and/or container indemnity as referred above.
 Demurrage and/or detention shall be calculated and paid as per general tariff available on the web site www.apl.com, or in any of APL agency. However if special free time conditions are granted, then rates applicable as per general tariff grid shall start from the day following the last free day. U.S. demurrage and detention conditions are billed per APL (America)'s U.S. tariff or service contracts filed with the FMC RECEIVED by the Carrier from the Shipper in apparent good order and condition (unless otherwise noted herein) the total number or quantity of containers or other packages or units indicated above by the Merchant for carriage, subject to all the terms hereof and tariff for the relevant trade, from the place of receipt or the port of loading, whichever applicable, to the port of discharge or place of delivery whichever applicable. This Waybill is deemed to be a contract of carriage as defined in Article I (b) of the Hague Rules and Hague Visby Rules although this is not a document of title to the Goods.
 DELIVERY will only be made on Payment of all Freight and Charges and to the named Consignee or any third party nominated by the Consignee by written instruction to the Carrier or his Agent, unless the Shipper instructs otherwise prior to delivery. The rights and liabilities arising according to the terms hereof shall (without prejudice to any rule of common law and status) become binding between the Carrier and Consignee as if this agreement has been made between them and the Shipper guarantees on reception of this Waybill that he has accepted it on his own behalf, on behalf of the Consignee and the Owner of the Goods, and warrants that he has authority to do so.
LAW AND JURISDICTION
 i) Governing Law Insofar as anything has not been dealt with by the terms and conditions of this Bill of Lading, Singapore law shall apply. Singapore law shall in any event apply in interpreting the terms and conditions hereof.
 ii) Jurisdiction All disputes relating to this Bill of Lading shall be determined by the Courts of Singapore to the exclusion of the jurisdiction of the courts of any other country provided always that the Carrier may in its absolute and sole discretion invoke or voluntarily submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of any other country which, but for the terms of this Bill of Lading, could properly assume jurisdiction to hear and determine such disputes, but shall not constitute a waiver of the terms of this provision in any other instance.
 iii) Notwithstanding i) and ii), if Carriage includes Carriage to, from or through a port in the United States of America, the Merchant may refer any claim or dispute to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York in accordance with the laws of the United States of America.
 This Waybill is issued subject to the C.M.I Uniform Rules for Sea Waybills.
 The contract evidenced by this Sea Waybill is subject to the terms, conditions, exceptions, limitations and liberties (including those relating to pre-carriage and on-carriage) set out in and incorporated by the Carrier's Bill of Lading. The terms of the Carrier's Applicable Tariff are incorporated herein.
