Received by the Carrier the Goods as specified above in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise stated, to be transported to such place as agreed, authorized or permitted herein and subject to all the terms and conditions appearing on the front and reverse of this Bill of Lading to which the Merchant agrees by accepting this Bill of Lading, and local privileges and customers not withstanding. The particulars given above as stated by the shipper and the weight, measure, quantity, condition, contents and value of the Goods are unknown to the Carrier. In witness whereof three (3) original Bills of Lading have been signed if not otherwise stated above, the same being accomplished the other(s), if any, to be void. If required by the Carrier one (1) original Bill of Lading must be surrendered duly endorsed in exchange for the Goods or delivery order. Limitation on carrier's liability/shippers's ad valorem option. The Carrier in shall in no event be or become liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with the transportation of Goods in an amount exceeding US$500 per package, or in the case of goods not shipped in packages per customary freight unit, or the equivalent of that sum in other currency (or such other limitation imposed by a Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, statute or law in force according to the provisions hereof) unless the nature and value of such goods have been declared by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the bill of Lading. Such declaration of value shall not, however, be conclusive on the Carrier for purposes of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability. If the Merchant desires to be covered for a valuation in excess of said US$500 per package or customary freight unit or any other applicable limitation, the Merchant must so stipulate in this Bill of Lading and such additional liability only will be assumed by the Carrier upon payment of the Carrier's ad valorem freight charge, Declared Cargo Value US$ _____. If Merchant enters a value, Carriers limitation of liability shall not apply and the ad valorem rate will be charged.
