Delivery in Venezuela. Notwithstanding anything in this bill of lading to the contrary, the parties agree that the responsibility of the Carrier at Venezuelan ports shall cease when the goods are discharged into the possession of the customs authorities or other public legal entities in charge of the administration and operation of any relevant Venezuelan port(s) of discharge, and that the Carrier is entitled to make such discharge without requiring presentation or surrender of this bill of lading. Such discharge shall constitute final delivery and due accomplishment by the Carrier under this bill of lading and Venezuelan maritime, customs and ports laws, and it is agreed that the customs authorities or other public legal entities in charge of the administration and operation of any relevant Venezuelan port(s) of discharge and all persons or companies working under their authority shall be considered as having received delivery of the goods solely as agent of and on behalf of the Merchant. Carrier shall have no responsibility whatsoever for improper or unauthorized delivery or release of the goods by the customs authorities or other public legal entities in charge of the administration and operation of any relevant Venezuelan port(s) of discharge and Merchant to remain fully responsible for demurrage and other charges at Venezuelan ports, including delays caused by the customs authorities or other public legal entities in charge of the administration and operation of any relevant Venezuelan port(s) of discharge.
