2. Carrier's Tariff
The terms and conditions of the Carrier's applicable Tariff are incorporated herein, with particular attention drawn to the terms and conditions relating to Containers and vehicle demurrage and detention. The provisions relevant to the applicable Tariff can be accessed by email ifintercustoms.com.pa. In the case of any inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail, except in cases relating to Freight.
3. Warranty
The Merchant warrants that in agreeing to the Terms and Conditions hereof he is, or has the authority of the person owning or entitled to the possession of the Goods and this Bill of Lading.

4. Sub-Contracting and Indemnity
(1) The Carrier shall be entitled to sub-contract on any terms whatsoever the whole or any part of the Carriage.
(2) The Merchant hereby agrees that no Servants or Agents are, or shall be deemed to be liable with respect to the Goods or the Carriage as Carrier, bailee or otherwise, if however, it shall be adjudged that any Servants or Agents are a carrier or bailee of the Goods or under any responsibility with respect thereto, all exemptions and limitations of and exoneration from liability provided by law or by the Terms and Conditions including the jurisdiction clause shall be available to such Servant or Agent, if any claim is made against any of the Servants or Agents, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.
(3) The provisions of Clause 4 (2) shall extend to claims of whatsoever nature against other persons chartering space on the carrying vessel.

5. Carrier's Responsibility
(1) Port-to-Port Shipment
(a) When loss or damage has occurred between the time of loading of the Goods by the Carrier at the port of loading and the time of discharge by the Carrier at the port of discharge, the responsibility of the Carrier shall be determined in accordance with German law making the Hague Rules compulsorily applicable. In the event the Bill of Lading has been issued in Peru or a country in which the Hague Rules are compulsorily applicable and this Bill of Lading covers a shipment from or to Peru and such aforesaid country or between such aforesaid countries, the responsibility of the Carrier shall be determined in accordance with Peruvian law making the Hague Rules compulsorily applicable.
(b) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any fault of his personnel and of the vessel's Crew in cases of damage or loss caused by fire or explosion on board the vessel or caused by the negligence or fault of the Crew of the vessel, in the latter case save for damage or loss caused when executing measures which were predominantly taken in the interest of the Goods ("Error in Navigation and Fire Defences").
(c) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any fault of other persons involved in the navigation or management of the vessel, in particular pilots on board of the vessel or the Crew of a tug boat assisting the vessel, in cases of damage or loss caused by the navigation or the management of the vessel, save for damage or loss caused when executing measures which were predominantly taken in the interest of the Goods.
(d) Prior to loading and after discharge the Carrier is not deemed to have custody of the Goods. The Carrier is not responsible for acts or omissions of a terminal operator to which the Goods were submitted either by the Carrier or the Merchant. In the event that the Bill of Lading covers a shipment to or from the USA, however, US COGSA shall be applicable before the Goods are loaded on or after they are discharged from the vessel.
(e) Unless notice of loss or damage be given in writing to the Carrier or his agent at the port of discharge before or at the time of the removal of the Goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under the contract of Carriage, or if the loss or damage is not apparent within three (3) days, such removal shall be prima facie evidence of the delivery by the Carrier as described in this Bill of Lading and any such loss or damage which may have occurred to the Goods shall be deemed to be due to circumstances which are not the responsibility of the Carrier. The notice must clearly specify the damage. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, if a Container has been delivered to the Merchant, the Merchant must prove that the damage to or loss of the Goods did not occur during the period after delivery, when the Container was in the custody of the Merchant.

(2) Multimodal Transport
(a) If the place of damage to or loss of the Goods is known, the responsibility of the Carrier is determined by the law which applies to this leg of Carriage.
(b) If it is established that loss or damage occurred during the port-to-port leg the "Error in Navigation and Fire Defences" as per Clause 5 (1) (b) apply.
(c) If it is established that loss or damage occurred during the port-to-port leg for reasons stipulated in Clause 5 (1) (c) above, Clause 5 (1) (c) apply.
(d) In the event that part of the multimodal transport is a shipment to or from the USA and the damage to or loss of the Goods occurs at the time between the loading at the port of loading and the unloading at the port of discharge, the provisions of US COGSA also applies before the Goods are loaded on or after they are discharged from the vessel in the USA.
(e) With respect to road Carriage between countries in Europe liability shall be determined in accordance with the Convention on the Contract for the International Carriage of Goods by Road (CMR), dated May 19, 1956 and during rail Carriage between countries in Europe according to the International Agreement on Railway Transports (CIM), dated February 25, 1961 (or any amendments to this Convention or Agreement).
(f) Unless notice of loss or damage be given in writing to the Carrier or his agent at the port of discharge before or at the time of the removal of the Goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under the contract of Carriage, or if the loss or damage is not apparent within seven (7) days, such removal shall be prima facie evidence of the delivery by the Carrier as described in this Bill of Lading. The notice must clearly specify the damage. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, if a Container has been delivered to the Merchant, the Merchant must prove that the damage to or loss of the Goods did not occur during the period after delivery, when the Container was in the custody of the Merchant.
(g) Compensation shall be calculated by reference to the value of the Goods at the place and the time they are delivered to the Merchant, or at the place and the time they should have been delivered. For the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for loss of or damage to the Goods, the sound value of the Goods is agreed to be the invoice value plus Freight and insurance if paid.
(h) In the event that the Bill of Lading covers a shipment from or to the USA US COGSA shall apply. US COGSA shall also be applicable before the Goods are loaded on or after they are discharged from the vessel in the USA.

(3) Description of Goods
The Carrier or any person to whom the Carrier has sub-contracted the Carriage or any person authorized by the Carrier shall be entitled, but under no obligation, to open any Container or package at any time and to inspect the Goods, if by order of the authorities at any place, a Container has to be opened for the Goods to be inspected, the Carrier will not be liable for any loss or damage incurred as a result of such opening, unpacking, inspection or repacking. The Carrier shall be entitled to recover the costs of such opening, unpacking, inspection and repacking from the Merchant.
10. Carriage Affected by Condition of Goods
If it appears at any time that, due to their condition, the Goods cannot safely or properly be carried further or without incurring additional expense or taking any measure(s) in relation to the Container or the Goods, the Carrier may without notice to the Merchant take any measure(s) and/or incur any additional expense to carry or to continue the Carriage thereof, and/or sell or dispose of the Goods, and/or abandon the Carriage and/or store them ashore or afloat, under cover or in the open, at any place, whichever the Carrier, in his absolute discretion, considers most appropriate, which abandonment, storage, sale or disposal shall be deemed to constitute due delivery under this Bill of Lading. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any additional expense so incurred.

11. Description of the Goods

The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses and fines, arising or resulting from any breach of these obligations and warranties.
(2) The Merchant shall comply with all regulations or requirements of customs, ports and/or other authorities and shall bear and pay all duties, taxes, fines, imposts, expenses or losses (including Freight for any additional Carriage) incurred or suffered by reason of any failure to so comply, or by reason of any illegal, incorrect, or insufficient marking, number or addressing of the Goods or the discovery of any drugs, narcotics, stowaways or other illegal substances within Containers packed by the Merchant or inside Goods supplied by the Merchant, or stamp duty imposed by any country and shall indemnify the Carrier in respect thereof.
(3) If Containers supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier are unpacked at the Merchant's premises, the Merchant is responsible for returning the empty Containers (free of any dangerous goods placards, labels or markings), with interiors brushed and clean, to the point or place designated by the Carrier, his Servants or Agents, within the time prescribed. Should a Container not be returned within the time prescribed in the Tariff, the Merchant shall be liable for any detention, loss or expenses which may arise from such non-return.

(3) If Containers supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier are unpacked at the Merchant's premises, the Merchant is responsible for returning the empty Containers (free of any dangerous goods placards, labels or markings), with interiors brushed and clean, to the point or place designated by the Carrier, his Servants or Agents, within the time prescribed. Should a Container not be returned within the time prescribed in the Tariff, the Merchant shall be liable for any detention, loss or expenses which may arise from such non-return.

18. Description of the Goods
The shipper warrants to the Carrier that the particulars relating to the Goods as set out on page 2 have been checked by the shipper on receipt of this Bill of Lading and that such particulars, and any other particulars furnished by or on behalf of the shipper, are adequate and correct. The shipper also warrants that the Goods are lawful Goods and contain no contraband.
19. Merchant's Responsibility
(1) All persons coming within the definition of Merchant in Clause 1 shall be jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the fulfillment of all obligations and warranties undertaken by the Merchant either in this Bill of Lading, or required by law. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses and fines, arising or resulting from any breach of these obligations and warranties.
(2) The Merchant shall comply with all regulations or requirements of customs, ports and/or other authorities and shall bear and pay all duties, taxes, fines, imposts, expenses or losses (including Freight for any additional Carriage) incurred or suffered by reason of any failure to so comply, or by reason of any illegal, incorrect, or insufficient marking, number or addressing of the Goods or the discovery of any drugs, narcotics, stowaways or other illegal substances within Containers packed by the Merchant or inside Goods supplied by the Merchant, or stamp duty imposed by any country and shall indemnify the Carrier in respect thereof.
(3) If Containers supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier are unpacked at the Merchant's premises, the Merchant is responsible for returning the empty Containers (free of any dangerous goods placards, labels or markings), with interiors brushed and clean, to the point or place designated by the Carrier, his Servants or Agents, within the time prescribed. Should a Container not be returned within the time prescribed in the Tariff, the Merchant shall be liable for any detention, loss or expenses which may arise from such non-return.

THAT DAMAGE WOULD PROBABLY RESULT
(k) Subject to the applicable restrictions in statutory law and international conventions, the Carrier shall not be liable for damage caused by any navigating or handling the vessel, including errors caused by the arrangement of group of tugs or pushers.
(3) Change of Destination by Merchant
In the event that the Merchant requests the Carrier to deliver the Goods at a port or place other than the port of discharge or the place of delivery originally designated in this Bill of Lading and the Carrier in its absolute discretion agrees to such request, such further Carriage will be undertaken on the basis that the Bill of Lading Terms and Conditions are to apply to such Carriage as if the ultimate destination agreed with the Merchant had been entered on page 2 of this Bill of Lading as the port of discharge or place of delivery.
6. Time for Suit
In any event, the Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of loss of or damage to the Goods, non-delivery, mis-delivery, delay or any other loss or damage connected or related to the Carriage unless suit is brought within one (1) year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.
7. Sundry Liability Provisions
(1) Hague Rules/Hague-Visby Rules
In the event that suit is brought in a court other than the court as provided for in Clause 25 and such court contrary to Clause 25 accepts jurisdiction, then the Hague-Visby Rules are compulsorily applicable if this Bill of Lading has been issued in a country where the Hague-Visby Rules are compulsorily applicable and the Carrier's liability shall not exceed 2 SDRs per kilo of gross weight of the Goods lost or damaged; if this Bill of Lading has been issued in a country in which the Hague Rules apply, the Carrier's liability shall not exceed GBP 100 per package or unit.
(2) US COGSA
Notwithstanding any of the foregoing to the contrary, in the event that suits brought in a court in the USA and such court, contrary to Clause 25, accepts jurisdiction, then US COGSA shall be compulsorily applicable to this contract of Carriage if this Bill of Lading covers a shipment to or from the USA. The provisions set forth in US COGSA shall also govern before the Goods are loaded on and after they are discharged from the vessel. The Carrier's maximum liability in respect to the Goods shall not exceed US$ 500 per package or, where the Goods are not shipped in packages, US$ 500 per customary freight unit unless the nature and value of the Goods has been declared by the Merchant and inserted in writing on page 2 of the Bill of Lading and said Merchant shall have paid the applicable ad valorem freight rate set forth in Carrier's Tariff.
(3) Shipper's declared value
The Merchant agrees and acknowledges that the Carrier has no knowledge of the value of the Goods and that compensation higher than that provided for herein may not be claimed unless the nature and value of such Goods have been declared by the Merchant, agreed to by the Carrier and inserted into the Bill of Lading before shipment. In addition the applicable ad valorem freight rate as set out in the Carrier's Tariff must be paid. Any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value. If the declared value is higher than the actual value, the Carrier shall in no event be liable to pay compensation higher than the net invoice value of the Goods declared from the vessel. The Carrier's maximum liability in respect to import licenses, sales contracts, invoices or order number and/or details of any contract to which the Carrier is not a party when shown on page 2 of this Bill of Lading shall not be regarded as a declaration of value.
(4) Limitation of Liability
It is hereby agreed by the Merchant that the Carrier qualifies as a person entitled to limit liability under any Convention or Act pertaining to limitation of liability on maritime claims, whichever is applicable. The Carrier may be the ship-owner, charterer (including a slot-charterer), manager or operator of the vessel, or salvor rendering services in connection with salvage operations. If any claims are made against the Servants or Agents, they are entitled to avail themselves of the same limitation available to the Carrier. (5) Delay
(a) Unless expressly agreed, the Carrier does not undertake that the Goods shall arrive at the port of destination or place of delivery at any particular time or to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage caused by delay.
(b) If notwithstanding the foregoing the Carrier is held responsible for the consequences of any delay, the Carrier's liability is limited to an amount equal to three times of the Freight unless any lower limitation applies. The limitation does not apply if it is proved that the delay in delivery resulted from an act or omission of the Carrier or of his Servants or Agents done with the intent to cause damage, or recklessly and with knowledge that damage would probably result.
(c) Scope of Application and Exclusions
(a) The rights, defenses, limitations and liberties of whatsoever nature provided for in this Bill of Lading shall apply in any action against the Carrier for loss or damage or delay, however occurring and whether the action be founded in contract or in tort.
(b) Save as otherwise provided herein, the Carrier shall in no circumstances whatsoever and however arising be liable for direct or indirect or consequential loss or damage or loss of profits, unless it is established that the Carrier himself acted with the intent to cause damage, or recklessly and with knowledge that damage would probably result. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any customs liabilities even if caused by loss of the Goods.

8. Shipper-Packed Containers
If a Container has not been packed by or on behalf of the Carrier:
(1) The Carrier shall not be liable for loss of or damage to the Goods caused by:
(a) the manner in which the Container has been packed or
(b) the unsuitability of the Goods for Carriage in the Container supplied or
(c) the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container or the incorrect setting of any refrigeration controls thereof, provided that, if the Container has been supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier, this unsuitability or defective condition would have been apparent upon inspection by the Merchant at or prior to the time when the Container was packed or
(d) packing refrigerated Goods that are not at the correct temperature for Carriage.
(2) The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, liability or expense whatsoever and however arising caused by one or more matters referred to in Clause 8 (1).
(3) With regard to refrigerated Goods, the Carrier shall be deemed to have fulfilled his obligations under the contract of Carriage and shall have no liability whatsoever if such refrigerated Goods are carried in a range of plus or minus 2.5 degrees Celsius in regard to any temperature indicated on page 2 of this Bill of Lading. The term "apparent good order and condition" when used in this Bill of Lading with reference to the Goods which require refrigeration does not mean that the Goods when received were verified by the Carrier as being at the temperature on page 2 of this Bill of Lading. Where a temperature is indicated the Carrier undertakes that the Container is equipped to maintain the temperature set by the Merchant. The Merchant remains responsible for the consequences of any temperature irregularities prior to receipt or after delivery by the Carrier.
(4) Container with Goods packed by the Merchant shall be delivered to the Carrier, with an intact high security seal in place and the seal number noted in writing on this Bill of Lading by the Merchant. In the event the Container is not so sealed, the Carrier reserves the right, at the Merchant's expense, to return the Container to the Merchant for resealing, or to affix a seal.

9. Inspection of Goods
The Carrier or any person to whom the Carrier has sub-contracted the Carriage or any person authorized by the Carrier shall be entitled, but under no obligation, to open any Container or package at any time and to inspect the Goods, if by order of the authorities at any place, a Container has to be opened for the Goods to be inspected, the Carrier will not be liable for any loss or damage incurred as a result of such opening, unpacking, inspection or repacking. The Carrier shall be entitled to recover the costs of such opening, unpacking, inspection and repacking from the Merchant.
10. Carriage Affected by Condition of Goods
If it appears at any time that, due to their condition, the Goods cannot safely or properly be carried further or without incurring additional expense or taking any measure(s) in relation to the Container or the Goods, the Carrier may without notice to the Merchant take any measure(s) and/or incur any additional expense to carry or to continue the Carriage thereof, and/or sell or dispose of the Goods, and/or abandon the Carriage and/or store them ashore or afloat, under cover or in the open, at any place, whichever the Carrier, in his absolute discretion, considers most appropriate, which abandonment, storage, sale or disposal shall be deemed to constitute due delivery under this Bill of Lading. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any additional expense so incurred.
11. Description of the Goods
The shipper warrants to the Carrier that the particulars relating to the Goods as set out on page 2 have been checked by the shipper on receipt of this Bill of Lading and that such particulars, and any other particulars furnished by or on behalf of the shipper, are adequate and correct. The shipper also warrants that the Goods are lawful Goods and contain no contraband.
12. Merchant's Responsibility
(1) All persons coming within the definition of Merchant in Clause 1 shall be jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the fulfillment of all obligations and warranties undertaken by the Merchant either in this Bill of Lading, or required by law. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses and fines, arising or resulting from any breach of these obligations and warranties.
(2) The Merchant shall comply with all regulations or requirements of customs, ports and/or other authorities and shall bear and pay all duties, taxes, fines, imposts, expenses or losses (including Freight for any additional Carriage) incurred or suffered by reason of any failure to so comply, or by reason of any illegal, incorrect, or insufficient marking, number or addressing of the Goods or the discovery of any drugs, narcotics, stowaways or other illegal substances within Containers packed by the Merchant or inside Goods supplied by the Merchant, or stamp duty imposed by any country and shall indemnify the Carrier in respect thereof.
(3) If Containers supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier are unpacked at the Merchant's premises, the Merchant is responsible for returning the empty Containers (free of any dangerous goods placards, labels or markings), with interiors brushed and clean, to the point or place designated by the Carrier, his Servants or Agents, within the time prescribed. Should a Container not be returned within the time prescribed in the Tariff, the Merchant shall be liable for any detention, loss or expenses which may arise from such non-return.

13. ISPS Code
The Merchant must comply with the requirements of the ISPS Code. If the Carrier is held liable by any State Authority or any other third party the Merchant will indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any damages resulting from the violation of the ISPS Code by the Merchant.
(2) The Merchant undertakes to pay the Carrier any costs or expenses whatsoever arising out of or related to security regulations or measures required by the port facility or any relevant authority

14. Description of the Goods
The shipper warrants to the Carrier that the particulars relating to the Goods as set out on page 2 have been checked by the shipper on receipt of this Bill of Lading and that such particulars, and any other particulars furnished by or on behalf of the shipper, are adequate and correct. The shipper also warrants that the Goods are lawful Goods and contain no contraband.
15. Merchant's Responsibility
(1) All persons coming within the definition of Merchant in Clause 1 shall be jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the fulfillment of all obligations and warranties undertaken by the Merchant either in this Bill of Lading, or required by law. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses and fines, arising or resulting from any breach of these obligations and warranties.
(2) The Merchant shall comply with all regulations or requirements of customs, ports and/or other authorities and shall bear and pay all duties, taxes, fines, imposts, expenses or losses (including Freight for any additional Carriage) incurred or suffered by reason of any failure to so comply, or by reason of any illegal, incorrect, or insufficient marking, number or addressing of the Goods or the discovery of any drugs, narcotics, stowaways or other illegal substances within Containers packed by the Merchant or inside Goods supplied by the Merchant, or stamp duty imposed by any country and shall indemnify the Carrier in respect thereof.
(3) If Containers supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier are unpacked at the Merchant's premises, the Merchant is responsible for returning the empty Containers (free of any dangerous goods placards, labels or markings), with interiors brushed and clean, to the point or place designated by the Carrier, his Servants or Agents, within the time prescribed. Should a Container not be returned within the time prescribed in the Tariff, the Merchant shall be liable for any detention, loss or expenses which may arise from such non-return.

16. Description of the Goods
The shipper warrants to the Carrier that the particulars relating to the Goods as set out on page 2 have been checked by the shipper on receipt of this Bill of Lading and that such particulars, and any other particulars furnished by or on behalf of the shipper, are adequate and correct. The shipper also warrants that the Goods are lawful Goods and contain no contraband.
17. Merchant's Responsibility
(1) All persons coming within the definition of Merchant in Clause 1 shall be jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the fulfillment of all obligations and warranties undertaken by the Merchant either in this Bill of Lading, or required by law.
