Received by the Carrier the Goods as detailed above in approved good order and contain all documents stated to be transported to such place as agreed, authorized or permitted herein and subject to the terms and conditions appearing on the front and reverse of this Bill of Lading to which the Merchant agrees by accepting the Bill of Lading and that packages and contents conforming to the particulars given above as stated by the shipper and the weight measure quantity contents and value of the Goods are unknown to the Carrier. In witness whereof these (3) original Bills of Lading have been signed and delivered as stated above, the same being so constituted the original Party to be signed by the Carrier and (3) original Bills of Lading must be submitted duly endorsed and stamped for the Goods or delivery order. Limitation on carrier's liability/shipper's responsibility and value of goods. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with the transportation of Goods in an amount exceeding USD$500 per package or in the case of goods shipped in bulk, for an amount exceeding the equivalent of that sum in other currency for a value limitation stipulated by a Carriage of Goods by Sea Act (COGSA) or law in force according to provisions hereof unless the nature and value of such goods have been declared by the Merchant to the Carrier and entered in the bill of lading. Both declarations shall not, however, by compliance with the Carrier for purposes of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability. If the Merchant desires to be covered for a valuation in excess of said USD$500 per package or custom additional liability only will be assumed by the Carrier upon payment of the Carrier 20% of value in freight charge. Declared Cargo Value USD$. If Merchant enters a value, Carrier's limitation of liability shall not apply and the bill of lading shall be for that paid. Carrier hereby undertakes to carry out at request of shipper cold treatment of goods, which cold treatment shall be totally separate from and outside the scope of carrier's undertaking to carry goods under this bill of lading and for which fee to be separately charged. Cold treatment shall be performed by carrier but at risk of the shipper/owner. Carrier's undertaking for cold treatment of goods is strictly limited to exercise due diligence to put goods in approved containers and ensure adequate ventilation and recording devices as well as to follow cold treatment procedure. Carrier is not responsible for a failure of the cold treatment as consequence of incorrect placement of the cold treatment probes that is a responsibility of the Peruvian milk supplier, quality control (NASA). Carrier upon exercise due diligence shall be fully released, discharged from any obligation and responsibility in respect of and to outcome of cold treatment. Shipper consents hereby undertaken to cold treatment and undertake to make for any and all consequences arising from or out of goods being subject to cold treatment. Additionally, shipper/consignee agree to direct new destination of cargo within the next 7 days after reception of the cold treatment.
