Limitation on carrier's liability/shippers's ad valorem option. The Carrier in shall in no event be or become liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with the transportation of Goods in an amount exceeding US $500 per package, or in the case of goods not shipped in packages per customary freight unit, or the equivalent of that sum in other currency (or such other limitation imposed by a Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, statute or law in force according to the provisions hereof) unless the nature and value of such goods have been declared by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the bill of Lading. Carrier undertaking for cold treatment of goods is strictly limited to exercise due diligence to provide properly approved containers and temperature measuring and recording devices as well as to monitor cold treatment procedure. Carrier is not responsible for a failure of the cold treatment as consequence of an incorrect placement of the cold treatment probes that is a responsibility of the peruvian national agrarian sanity authority (SENASA). Carrier upon exercise due diligence shall be fully released and discharged from any obligation and responsibility in respect of and for outcome of cold treatment. Shipper / consignee hereby undertakes to hold harmless and indemnify carrier for any and all consequences arising from or out of goods being subject to cold treatment. Additionally, shipper / consignee agrees to instruct new destination of cargo within the next 7 days after rejection/failure of the cold treatment.
