7. COMPENSATION AND LIABILITY PROVISIONS

7.1 Subject always to the Carrier's right to limit liability as provided for herein, if the Carrier is liable for compensation in respect of loss of or damage to the Goods, such compensation shall be calculated by reference to the FOB or FCA price plus any other charges and expenses and the FOB or FCA price of the Goods cannot be established, such compensation shall be calculated by reference to the value of such Goods at the place and time they are delivered or should have been delivered to the Merchant. The value of the Goods shall be fixed according to the current market price, by reference to the normal value of the goods of the same kind and/or quality.

7.2 Save as is provided in clause 7.3:

(a) the Carrier's liability shall in no event exceed one hundred pounds lawful money of the United Kingdom per package or unit of the Goods lost, damaged or in respect of which a claim of whatsoever nature arises unless clause 7.2(b) applies.

(b) the US COGSA applies by virtue of clauses 5.3 or 6.2(a) neither the Carrier nor the Vessel shall in any event be or become liable for any loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Carriage in an amount exceeding US$500 per Package or customary freight unit.

7.3 The Merchant agrees and acknowledges that the Carrier has no knowledge of the value of the Goods and higher compensation than that provided for in this TD shall be claimed only when, with the consent in writing of the Carrier, the value of the Goods declared by the Shipper upon delivery to the Carrier has been stated on the reverse of this TD and extra freight paid. In that case, the amount of the declared value shall be substituted for the limits laid down in this TD. Any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

7.4 The Carrier's TD shall operate to limit or deprive the Carrier of any statutory protection, defence, exemption or limitation of liability authorised by any applicable laws, statutes or regulations of any country. The Carrier shall have the benefit of the said laws, statutes or regulations as if it were the owner of any carrying Vessel.

8. GENERAL

8.1 The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods or any documents relating thereto shall arrive or be available at any point or place at any stage during the Carriage or at the Port of Discharge or the Place of Delivery at any particular time or to meet any particular requirement of any licence, permission, safe contract, or credit of the Merchant or any market or use of the Goods and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any loss or damage whatsoever arising by any direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage caused by delay. If the Carrier should nevertheless be held legally liable for any such direct or indirect or consequential loss or damage caused by delay, such liability shall in no event exceed the Freight paid.

8.2 Save as is otherwise provided herein, the Carrier shall in no circumstances be liable for any direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage arising from any other cause whatsoever for loss of profits.

8.3 Once the Goods have been received by the Carrier for Carriage the Merchant shall be entitled neither to impede, delay, suspend or stop or otherwise interfere with the Carrier's intended manner of performance of the Carriage or the exercise of the liberties conferred by this TD nor to instruct or require the delivery of the Goods at any other Port or Place than the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery named on the reverse hereof or such other Port or Place selected by the Carrier in the exercise of the liberties herein, for any reason whatsoever. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all claims, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, delays, legal fees and/or expenses caused to the Carrier by his Sub-Contractors, servants or agents arising or resulting from any stoppage whatsoever in the Carriage of the Goods.

8.4 The Terms and Conditions shall govern the responsibility of the Carrier in connection with or arising out of the supplying of a Container to the Merchant whether before, during or after the Carriage.

8.5 In the event that the Merchant requests the Carrier to deliver the Goods: (a) at a port other than the Port of Discharge; or

(b) (save in the USA) at a Place of Delivery instead of the Port of Discharge or at a place beyond the Place of Delivery, and the Carrier in its absolute discretion agrees to such request, such further Carriage will be undertaken on the basis that the Terms and Conditions are to apply to such Carriage as if the ultimate destination agreed with the Merchant had been entered on the reverse side of this TD as the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery.

9. NOTICE OF LOSS, TIME BAR

Unless notice of loss or damage and the general nature of such loss or damage be given in writing to the Carrier or his agents at the Place of Delivery (or Port of Discharge if no Place of Delivery is named on the reverse hereof) before or at the time of delivery of the Goods and the nature of the loss or damage is not apparent within three days thereafter, the Carrier shall be deemed prima facie to have delivered the Goods as described in this TD. In any event, the Carrier shall be discharged from all liability whatsoever in respect of the Goods unless suit is brought within twelve months after their delivery or after the date when they are considered to be due delivery (as per clause 22(b) or 22(c)) as the case may be.

In cases of any claims against the Carrier in respect of loss or damage to or loss of the Goods or of claims not relating to the Goods, notice to be given within one week and suit to be brought against the Carrier within 6 months after delivery as determined in clause 22, such claims otherwise being definitively waived and time-barred.

10. DEFENCES AND LIMITS FOR THE CARRIER

10.1 It has been agreed between the Carrier and the Merchant that if the TD is a Bill of Lading only the Holder and if the TD is a non-negotiable waybill, only the Shipper or, alternatively, the Consignee (depending on which one of the two Persons actually incurred the loss or damage), shall be entitled to claim from the Carrier in respect of any loss or damage to or loss of the Goods or of claims against the Carrier, and if any other Person than the aforementioned would nevertheless make such claim or allegation, then the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.

10.2 The Terms and Conditions shall apply in any action against the Carrier for any loss or damage whatsoever and/or howsoever occurring (and, without restriction, the US COGSA shall apply in respect of any delay, loss or damage and/or misdelivery) and whether the action be founded in contract, bailment or in tort and even if the loss, damage or delay arose as a result of unseaworthiness, negligence or fundamental breach of contract.

11. SHIPPER-PACKED CONTAINERS

If a Container has not been packed on behalf of the Carrier (FCL Container):

11.1 This TD shall not be accepted by such a Container;

11.2 The Carrier shall not be liable for loss of or damage to the contents and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any injury, loss, damage, liability or expense whatsoever incurred by the Carrier if such loss of or damage to the contents and/or such injury, loss, damage, liability or expense has been caused by any matter beyond his control including, inter alia, without prejudice to the generality of this exclusion:

(a) the manner in which the Container has been packed; or

(b) the unsuitability of the Goods for carriage in Containers; or

(c) the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container (including blocked air drains) or the incorrect setting of any thermostatic, ventilation, or other special controls thereof; provided that, if the Container has been supplied by the Carrier, this unsuitability or defective condition could have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or prior to the time the Container was packed.

11.3 The Merchant is responsible for the packing and sealing of all FCL Containers and if a FCL Container is damaged or its contents are lost or damaged as a result of affixed by the Shipper intact, the Carrier shall not be liable for any shortage of Goods suspected at delivery.

11.4 The Shipper shall inspect Containers before packing them and the use of Containers shall be prima facie evidence of their being sound and suitable for use.

12. PERISHABLE CARGO

12.1 Goods, including Goods of a perishable nature, shall be carried in ordinary Containers without special protection, services or other measures unless there is noted on the reverse side of this TD that the Goods will be carried in a refrigerated, heated, electrically ventilated or otherwise specifically equipped Container or are to receive special attention in any way. The Merchant undertakes not to tender for Carriage any Goods which require refrigeration, ventilation or other specialised attention without giving written notice of their nature and the particular temperature of supply air to be maintained or other setting of the thermostatic, ventilation or other special controls. If the above requirements are not complied with, the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage arising.

12.2 Temperature instructions given by the Merchant for temperature controlled Containers will always relate to the supply air temperature range to be maintained by the Carrier during the Carriage. The Carrier will not guarantee any temperature range inside the Container. The temperature of the Goods upon delivery to or loading on board of the Vessel is to be controlled by the Carrier and will be subject to the control of the Merchant. The Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of any intended level of humidity inside any Container.

12.3 The term "apparent good order and condition" when used in this TD with reference to goods which require refrigeration, ventilation or other specialised attention does not mean that the Goods, when received, were verified by the Carrier as being at the carrying temperature, humidity level or other condition designated by the Merchant.

12.4 The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to the Goods arising from latent defects, derangement, breakdown, defrosting, stoppage of the refrigerating, ventilating or any other specialised machinery, plant, insulation and/or apparatus of the Container, Vessel, vessel, conveyance and any other facilities, provided that the Carrier shall before and at the beginning of the Carriage exercise due diligence to maintain the Container supplied by the Carrier in an efficient state.

13. INSPECTION OF GOODS

The Carrier shall be entitled, but under no obligation, to open and/or scan any Package or Container at any time and to inspect the contents. If it appears at any time that the Goods cannot safely or properly be carried or carried further, either at all or in the Particulars furnished by the Merchant, the Carrier may, at the expense of the Container or the Goods, the Carrier may without notice to the Merchant (but as his agent only) take any measures and/or incur any reasonable additional expense and/or to continue the Carriage thereof, and/or to stop or dispose of the Goods and/or to abandon the Carriage and/or to store them ashore or afloat, under cover or in the open, at any place, whichever the Carrier in its absolute discretion considers most appropriate, such sale, disposal, abandonment or storage shall be deemed to constitute due delivery under this TD. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any reasonable additional expense so incurred. The Carrier in exercising the liberties contained in this clause shall not be under any obligation to take any particular measures and shall not be liable for any loss, delay or damage whatsoever arising from any action or lack of action under this clause.

14. DESCRIPTION OF GOODS

14.1 This TD shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt by the Carrier in apparent good order and condition, except as otherwise noted, of the total number of Containers or other packages or units indicated in the box on the reverse side hereof and the Particulars furnished by the Merchant.

14.2 No representation is made by the Carrier as to the weight, contents, measure, quantity, quality, description, condition, marks, numbers or value of the Goods and the Carrier shall be under no responsibility whatsoever in respect of such description or particulars.

14.3 The Shipper warrants to the Carrier that the particulars relating to the Goods as set forth on the reverse hereof have been checked by the Shipper on receipt of this TD and that such particulars, and any other particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Shipper, are adequate and correct. The Shipper
